3. Old business:

Field Day: Bob reported on some of the numbers but will let leadership determine who get pins for the next meeting.

Larry Whiteside helped Elijah submit necessary tax paperwork so we still have our charitable status with the State of Tenn.

Tower /Repeater update: They ended up cancelling both work party dates and will need to reschedule. Two people, Bob KM4EBZ and Brian KQ4OB stated that they would go up and install the new cameras. They would make arrangements to get the keys and the cameras and go up.

Education Committee report Steve Bible N7HPR Reported on Walter State program.

(2) Greene Co. Makers group continue to meet

4. New Business:

Nominations Committee: Larry Whiteside KN4MVH, Scott Bird KM4FYJ and Bob Etheridge KM4EBZ volunteered to be on the committee.

David Houser's son received scholarship from ARRL again this year for college. David asked that something be posted on the Clubs Facebook and on the website.

There is Hamfest in Erwin August 23rd. by the GMRS group. It opens at 7am to goes until 2pm, $10 fee.

5. Roundtable:

Abner Richards asked that the club ok paying fee for the TenTen Net Club annual fee and the annual fee for the Geritol membership fee. He would like to club pay it now. There was some discussion, and we felt that the leadership could make that decision without a vote given it would be less than $200. The Clubs Id numbers for the TENTEN is 376? and the Geritol net is 2963? Not sure if these numbers are correct.

Meeting adjourned at: 19:25 with a motion by Scott Bird KM4FYJ
